WAS SHE UNSEAWORTHY?

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST THE DANMARK'S OWNERS.

The Sensational Story of One of the Passengers—Cap. Murrill Honored
—The Casualty Record.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Sixty of the Dan-mark's passengers, who were shipped via the Pennsylvania railroad from Philadelphia for New York after midnight, arrived here in time.

They were not required to pass through Castle Garden, for inspection, the authorities of the Pennsylvania railroad, who are in charge of the ship, having made a satisfactory examination.

Most of the passengers who came here departed for their homes, or the homes of their friends in this city, Brooklyn and the vicinity.

Olaf Wuglund was one of the few English-speaking people in the party. He is a florist and has been in America before,
in conversation with a reporter he made a statement which has not yet appeared in print. He said that his remarks were important and were referred to the ship's company, but he adhered to his declaration.

He said that before the accident occurred—the date he could not recall but thought it was the 1st or 2d of April—
one of the Norwegian immigrants told him that he had overheard a conversation in the officers' quarters. One of the ship's officers had said to the others in the apartment that he thought the vessel would not be seaworthy.

Wuglund was loud in his praise of the
captain and crew of the steamer Missouri.
He pumps were broken and in case of accident
would be found to be of little service. "I am afraid
the Danmark," the officer is reported to have said, "will meet the fate of the Geiser." The Geiser was a vessel of the same line sunk off Nova Scotia by a collision
with the Thingvalla about a year ago.

Wuglund further said that the vessel's coal-bins were adrift on two occasions before his machinery gave out. The first fire occurred at about 1 o'clock on the night of March 29, and the second about 3:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the next day.

Wuglund was loud in his praise of the
captain and crew of the steamer Missouri.

Capt. Hamilton Murrill Remembers.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 24.—Captain Hamilton Murrill of the Missouri, who rescued the Danmark's passengers, was given a reception at the maritime exchange this morning. Over 1,000 people, including many ladies, stood by him.

Addresses of welcome and congratula-tion were delivered. A medal was presented to the captain by the Maritime society and a gift of ivy from Westminster abbey was given to the captain by an English lady. The captain made a brief speech and shook hands with people for two hours.

Toronto—Mrs. Burfield, aged 35, the mother of a family of six small children,
eloped with William Fitzmorris, a youth
of 19. Her husband is after the pair with a gun.

Toledo, Ohio—Young & Miller, lumber dealers, transferred their business to three of their heaviest creditors. Their liabilities are $133,000 and the assets about $75,000.

Cincinnati, Ohio—Albert Williams, a married man, met Albert Johnson and Annie Gasper on the streets and he shot Johnson dead and fatally wounded the woman.

Albany, N. Y.—The Senate has passed the Vedder tax bill, grading the sale of liquors.

Washington, April 24.—The Vedder tax
bill, which was introduced by Senator Lerdo de Tejada, ex-President of Mexico, who died on Sunday last, will be taken on
to his native land for interment.

Hopkins, Minn.—John Webster, a brake-man, while working on a train on the Wabash near here, was pushed from the train by a brakeman and killed.

Morgan, W. Va.—Mrs. Moore's female seminary was destroyed by fire with all its contents. About thirty of the pupils lost their clothing. The loss is not known.

Toronto—Mrs. Burfield, aged 35, the
mother of a family of six small children,
eloped with William Fitzmorris, a youth
of 19. Her husband is after the pair with
a gun.

Montgomery, N. Y.—The Edison General Electric company was incorporated with a capital stock of $12,000,000. Among the incorporators are Henry Villard and Thomas A. Edison.

New York—William R. Foster, Jr., the lawyer who made way with $200,000 of the gratuity fund of the produce exchange by means of forged mortgages, has been located in an obscure town in Mexico.

Ventura, Calif.—A bold but unsuccessful attempt at bank robbery was made here.

A man named McClellan entered Com-mon's bank and, after a struggle with the cashier, was captured and taken into the street.

After the train passed that station he left the caboose and went out on top of the train, and not returning when Elkhart was reached a search was made, but he could not be found.

HE WAS LOOKING FOR SPOILS.

A Burglar Invades a First Ward Home at an Early Hour This Morning.

After Gaining An Entrance He Is Frightened Away By The Occupants.

A burglar who was evidently not an expert, tried his hand in the first ward this morning. The home he visited was that of Mrs. M. A. Sparham, 51 North High street.

Mrs. Sparham was away from home. Miss Lou Sparham and a young lady friend who were alone in the house were awakened by noise at a front window. They listened a moment but suggested that it was probably the wind and each assured the other shiveringly that she "was not scared the last bit."

A moment later they changed their minds. The key was turned in the front door, the door swung open and a man's footsteps were heard in the parlor, next to the room which the young ladies occupied. Miss Sparham hurried to the window and called for help. The visitor seemed willing not to wait for the second alarm, but hurried through the parlor to the door. He slammed it behind him, took time to look it and then disappeared.

It was after four when the house was once more left in quiet and the frightened occupants decided that they were not very sleepy after all. They found on the front door key marks of nippers; and outside the front window they picked up a hatchet that had been left the night before in the woodshed. The thief had partially raised the window but was unable to break the catch. The flower bed beneath the window was trampled and covered with prints of heavy shoes.

BIRDFLETS.

Another fine April shower last evening.

"A Lucky Strike" at the opera house this evening.

E. A. and L. P. Suter, the well-known tobacco men, are registered at the Grand.

The P. O. S. A. will hold a meeting at the Temple of Honor hall at 7:30 this evening.

Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

Badger Council No. 223, Royal Arcaum, assembly in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening.

The Mitchell-Robins Comedy Co. will present a "Lucky Strike" this evening at the opera house. Popular prices.

R. M. Bostwick's name has been added to the list of Merchants who will close on Mondays and Fridays at six o'clock.

Charley Blay has put off the air of authority that follows all assembly doorkeepers and is again hard at work. His audacious is still unsatisfied.

Clinton Herald: W. A. Simons expects to go to Janesville next week. Our people will be sorry to have him and his family leave as they have become greatly attached to them.

Mr. Henry King of the St. Louis Globe Democrat will have an article in the May Century contrasting the western with the eastern soldier in the American Civil War.

An adjourned meeting of the common council will be held this evening for the purpose of listening to the reading of the testimony in the water works investigation.

The new musical society will meet this evening at the School for the Blind. Carriages will leave the Grand hotel at half past seven o'clock for the accompaniment of those who wish to attend.

A genuine case of leprosy has been discovered in the neighboring town of Spring Lake. The victim is a woman, who has been examined by physicians, and is said to have the marked symptoms of this loathsome disease.

T. W. Goldin and probably several others of the Janesville militia officers will visit Fort Atkinson Thursday evening.

On Thursday the Hoard Rites will be mustered into service and a number of invitations have been sent to this city.

It is possible that the new musical society will close its first term next week by a concert. Walpurgis' "Night" has been under rehearsal for eight weeks past and in case the concert is given will probably be presented as one of the leading features of a programme that could hardly fail to be full of interest.

The piano recital given last evening for the pupils of Miss Hattie Benedict at that lady's music room, was attended by a large number interested in her excellent teaching. Miss Benedict gave several numbers from the great masters, with explanatory remarks, and the recital proved one of much interest and entertainment to all present.

The social dancing party given by the Night Owl Club at the Armory last evening was the first of a series of similar social gatherings to be given during the spring and summer season. There was a good attendance last evening, Smith & Anderson's orchestra furnishing the music, and all enjoyed the party.

are going north. No spring shooting ahead.

I wish to state that I studied stenography in Miss Williams' school of stenography, and completed my course there to my entire satisfaction. I do not consider myself a member of any other school and publishing my name in connection with another was premature and without my authority.

Mrs. Geo. Cogswell.

Milwaukee Sentinel:—Among the measures passed by this legislature is one making it unlawful to catch any wall-eyed pike, black bass or frog bass weighing less than one pound." We don't know the exact provisions of the law, but it is evident that the fishermen must take some steps to prevent pike and bass of less weight than one pound getting on his hook. It may be necessary to attach a copy of the law and a pair of scales to the hook and compel every pike and bass contemplating a catch at the bait to get on the scales. But perhaps the legislature thinks that because the fish have scales they can weigh themselves.

—The second appearance of the Mitchell-Robins Comedy Co. in Lepus' Opera House on last evening was before a good sized audience, every one of whom went away at the close of the performance well pleased. The play of "Our Boy" was presented, the leading parts being taken by Mr. Robins, Miss Adrienne Mitchell and Miss Katherine Graham. The company is one of the best that has visited Janesville in several months, and deserves the best of the audience.

The parties in the case are two well known Beloit young people, Miss Mary Hayes and Richard D. Garde. Miss Hayes complains that in July, three years ago, she was wooed and won by the defendant. She was then and is still married and was willing to enter into wedded life. It was soon after agreed, she avers, that on her birthday, December 31st, she should become Mrs. Garde. December came but the wedding was not celebrated.

The breach of promise suit of interesting detail is likely soon to be entered on Judge Bennett's calendar. The suit brings with it a tale of the unstable quaity of Beloit love.
